Built in the Early 1900s, this home was originally a hotel. With some of the original features and footprints and over 1500 sq foot of above grade living space, this home allows good living space and more once the basement is updated. Carport with attached garage keeps your vehicles dry and protected in the elements. Fenced in corner lot with sidewalk to your back deck make it easy for transporting groceries. Step onto your enclosed porch with new sliding doors to allow cool breezes and mountain views as you drink your morning coffee. Large eat in kitchen with island is an entertainer's paradise. Two spacious rooms for living/ dining complete this space. Small toilet area on the first floor has extra storage space you will love to have. A new open stairway in the kitchen leads to upstairs that boasts a nicely redone bath and three bedrooms with an extra room that could be used for office, closet or storage. This room has access to an attic that could easily be converted to another bedroom or living space. The remaining three bedrooms are pass through rooms that could be separated with your vision. Basement space was once finished and used as a den space. Functional laundry/ half bath area completes the usable space. Workspace and utility room are housed in this area as well. Owner pride is evident in this home and the list of improvements verify this. Priced to sell, this is a great investment. Come take a look
